

North Wood County Historical Society Archive Collection Use and Reproduction Policy

The purposes of the North Wood County Historical Society are exclusively educational. They are to preserve, advance and disseminate knowledge of the history of Marshfield and the surrounding area and the State of Wisconsin; to maintain the Governor William H. Upham House and to preserve the contents and articles given to the Society.

The NWCHS Archives maintains a large collection of original documents, photographic collections and postcards of the local area. The Archival collection is available for study and research; however, in order to preserve original documents and photographs and to maintain the integrity of the collection, none of the materials are allowed to leave the archives or to be reproduced without authorization.

Reproductions or electronic scans may be requested. Fees charged for retrieval, scanning and/or reproducing are listed below. Any material used for publication or used in the public for any reason must be credited "Reprinted with permission of North Wood County Historical Society". Clearance of any copyrighted material is the responsibility of the person wishing to publish or display said material.

1. Each person requesting reproductions or research by the NWCHS staff must fill out the Request for Research/Reproduction form.
2. Due to limited staff, requests for materials must be made at least 10 days in advance to allow for processing information.
3. Reproduced material may only be used for personal or research purposes. Permission for publication or commercial use will be handled on a case by case basis.
4. Images may be resized but not altered in any way, reproduced or sold.
5. Students may have photo copies for school projects free of charge however any scanned document or digitized photo must not be used for any reason other than the project they are working on. Digital photos will have a watermark that says "Collection of the North Wood County Historical Society". Scanned documentary copies would be $1 per document.
