

NORTH WOOD COUNTY
HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Community Connections

May is Historic Preservation Month!

- May 7-21 we will host 7 schools for student tours!
- Wednesday, May 14 Spoken History: Weinbrenner Property 6:30-7:30pm
- Thursday, May 22 from 6:30-8:00pm Curator's tour of the Timeless Treasures exhibit
- Friday, May 23 Annual Cemetery Tours at the Hillside Cemetery 9:30am and 12:00pm
- Saturday, May 31 is our 46th Annual Pie & Ice Cream Social!

Secretary Position

The North Wood County Historical Society Board of Directors is seeking an individual who would be willing to serve as Secretary.

This volunteer position is through 2026 and entails attending monthly meetings (3rd Mondays), recording and disseminating minutes prior to meetings, participating in Society events as able.

For more information please contact Kim in the office 715-387-3322 or email nwchs@uphammansion.com.

Volunteer Opportunities!

We are always looking for smiling faces to join with activities! If you are interested we can find a space for you!

Some areas of need include:

- helping out with events
- working with historic collections
- sharing your skills in the yard & garden
- helping with student tours
- help with general house tours
- help with exhibits

North Wood County Historical Society
PO Box 142
Marshfield, WI 54449

Located in at 212 W. 3rd St. Marshfield
Office & Research Hours:

Monday 9-1

Wednesday 10-4

Thursday 9-1

Tour Hours:

Wednesdays & Saturdays 1:30-4pm

Phone: 715-387-3322

Email: nwchs@uphammansion.com

Web: uphammansion.com

Facebook: www.facebook.com/UphamMansion.NWCHS

Community Connections is a monthly emailer sent to subscribers to share NWCHS upcoming events.

If you would like to subscribe to Community Connections, email us and we will sign you up! Your email will only be used for sending the monthly update

Student Tours

Each year the North Wood County Historical Society hosts over 300 students and 60 adult chaperones as they tour the Gov. Upham House Museum.

Students review Marshfield history and then participate in hands on activities throughout the building.

We are always looking for volunteers who enjoy interacting with young people! Contact Kim in the office if you are interested in more information. 715-387-3322

Spoken History Presents:

How Industry, Labor & Innovation Shaped Marshfield's Weinbrenner Shoe Factory Property

Wednesday, May 14
6:30-7:30pm

Everett Roehl Marshfield Public Library

Presenter Don Schnitzler, local historian and member of the North Wood County Historical Society, will talk about the Albert Weinbrenner Shoe Factory, its history, and its role in more than a century of industrial evolution in Wisconsin.

Through archival photographs and historical documents, Don will provide a vivid picture of how the site transitioned from crafting fine furniture to outfitting workers with sturdy boots.

Curator's Tour

Special Tour
20 person limit $5/person
Registration Required

Thursday, May 22
Tour starts at 6:30pm
212 W. 3rd St. Marshfield

Join Don Schnitzler for a special tour as he guides guests through the Timeless Treasures exhibit! Learn the back stories of the clocks and watches on display and about the makers who created them.

To register, call Kim at 715-357-3322 or email: nwchs@uphamansion.com

Cemetery Tours

Friday, May 26
9:30 am and Noon
Hillside Cemetery, 1110 N St. Joseph Ave.
Marshfield

The public is invited to join 3rd Grade students to experience voices of Marshfield's past as re-enactors share the live stories of men and women who helped shape the community.

All are welcome!

46th Annual Pie & Ice Cream Social

Saturday, May 31
10am-3pm
212 W. 3rd St. Marshfield

Join the North Wood County Historical Society as it celebrates its 46th annual Pie & Ice Cream Social!

Enjoy pie with some ice cream donated by Hub City Ice Cream Company, live music by Will Elmhorst, kid's games, raffle baskets & silent auction in the front yard.

Inside the Upham House view the latest exhibit: "Timeless Treasures: A Journey Through American Clocks." Donations for exhibit at the door.

Featured Exhibit

